

Do you know a teen in need of Drivers Education?

Drivers Education Scholarships Available

Trauma centers in the North Denver-Metro area are committed to keeping young drivers safe on the road.

The Good Samaritan Medical Center Foundation has received a grant from Farmers Insurance to offer scholarships for teens in the community who need driver's education training.

A limited number of scholarships up to $475 will be awarded towards drivers education programs that include 30 hours of in-person learning and 6 hours of behind the wheel training with an instructor.

Applications are accepted from May 2023 through January 2024

Scholarship applications will be reviewed within 60 days of submission. The number of scholarships is limited and the process is competitive.
